Healthpointe Now Providing Revision Surgery

Posted: Oct 30, 2015 9:11 PM EDT

Healthpointe is proud to announce that Dr. Rendon, general surgeon, is now correcting past surgeries for patients throughout Southern California.

La Mirada, CA (PRWEB) October 30, 2015

Dr. Rendon, general and bariatric surgeon, is now providing revision surgery at Healthpointe for patients in Anaheim, Ontario, Corona, Colton, and Los Angeles. A revision is a surgery that corrects an error or complications from another previously performed surgery.

Patients still coping with pain or symptoms after a hernia repair, total knee replacement, laparoscopy, breast surgery, or hip replacement may benefit from Healthpointe's state of the art resources. Dr. Rendon also revises scar tissue and worn prostheses.

Revision surgery can also be performed as a bariatric procedure designed to correct or "revise" a past weight loss surgery which resulted in complications or unexpected outcomes. Patients who have undergone a sleeve gastrectomy bariatric procedure and who did not experience significant weight loss, or who gained a significant amount of weight back after the procedure even with diet and exercise, may be candidates for a revision.

If you have experienced complications from arthroplasty, arthroscopy, or other surgery of the hand, wrist, hip, knee, foot, ankle, or other joint, or if you initially underwent surgery for tendonitis, tendinosis, cyst or tumor removal, plantar fasciitis, degenerative joint disease, broken bones, joint replacement, or osteoarthritis, and still suffer from pain, you may qualify for a revision surgery at Healthpointe.

For each of his patients at Healthpointe, Dr. Rendon brings a wealth of professional medical experience and research, as well as personal dedication and passion for quality care. Dr. Rendon works out of the Anaheim, Ontario, Corona, Colton, and Los Angeles clinics.
